

Home Media Conversion Technology Waiver

The Jamestown Philomenian Library is pleased to offer home media conversion devices for in-library usage. In order to use these devices, patrons must be at least 18 years of age, possess a valid Ocean State Libraries card, and have a signed "Home Media Conversion Agreement" on file assuming financial responsibility for damaged equipment. The library is not responsible for damage to home media that occurs due to conversion device usage.

Usage of the home media conversion devices is by appointment only with a limit of 3 hours per day per patron. Patrons must leave a government-issued ID or equivalent with staff at the circulation desk during each appointment to be retrieved when the device is returned.

Patrons are responsible for any damage, loss, or theft of the home media conversion devices while using them.

Replacement costs are as follows:

- Funai VHS to DVD Converter - $520
- Epson V600 Perfection Photo Scanner - $300
- ION Profile Pro USB Turntable - $175
- ION Tape 2 PC Converter - $185

Home Media Conversion Agreement

By signing this waiver, you are assuming responsibility for any damage, loss, or theft of the home media conversion devices due to your usage and/or negligence. Using the conversion devices in a manner that infringes upon copyright, violates the law, or violates the library's Public Code of Conduct is prohibited. You must be at least 18 years of age with a library account in good standing (no fines or overdue materials on your record) to use these devices.

My signature below indicates that I have read and agree to the terms of the Home Media Conversion Technology Policy and Home Media Conversion Agreement of the Jamestown Philomenian Library.
